DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY.—Instruction is given by the President, five Professors, and eminent special lecturers appointed from year to year. Students have commodious furnished rooms in the new and attractive building COUNCIL HALL, which is devoted exclusively to the uses of this department. They have free access to all the classes, libraries, and cabinets of the other departments. Fifteen weeks during the summer can be spent in home-missionary or other labor, with compensation, without interference with studies. The demand for such labor is greater than the supply. During the last half of the course, the students have frequent opportunities to supply the neighboring churches. Students who need pecuniary assistance receive the usual aid from the American Education Society and such appropriations from special funds under the control of the Seminary as will enable them, with reasonable prudence and economy, to pursue their course without interruption or embarrassment.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND THE ARTS.—Twelve Professors give instruction in this department. The Classical Course embraces the studies of our best colleges, so arranged that after the Freshman year the student may, by elective studies, give a classical or scientific character to his course, receiving the degree of A. B. at its close. For entrance, three years of Latin, two of Greek, and one term of Geometry are necessary. The Literary Course is like the above, with the exception that no Greek and less Latin are required.

DEPARTMENT OF PREPARATORY INSTRUCTION.—Comprises a Classical School, which prepares students for the best colleges, and an English school, which offers the advantages of a first-class academy to those who can spend but a little time at school. Instruction is given by the Principal of this department, seven tutors, and about twenty-five special teachers.

Expenses in all departments for tuition, incidentals, and board are very low. Students who do not wish to take a full course can select such studies in any department as they are prepared to pursue to advantage. Both sexes admitted. Location healthful, and religious influences the best. No drinking saloons in town. Circulars with full information sent free by J. B. T. MARSH, Secretary.

OBERLIN CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

This institution has been established nearly twenty years. The first intention was to furnish elementary instruction, mainly for the purpose of affording what was at that time very rare in this country, — namely, a suitable preparation for advanced standing in the European conservatories. To this end, care has been taken to employ none but thoroughly qualified teachers. Graduates from this school have continued their studies in the best foreign conservatories, and in every case have received high commendation for the thorough and satisfactory nature of their preparation.

The school has had a vigorous growth, and now stands among the few institutions of our land which furnish superior advantages for doing work of an advanced grade. It is manned by a board of eleven professional and four assistant teachers, and it aims especially at the production of Thorough Musicians, instead of mere piano players, organists, or solo singers. A well-balanced cultivation of all the musical and intellectual faculties must be made the groundwork on which special studies and virtuosic attainments can be superimposed, if the musical profession is ever to be freed from the reproach of one-sided development and ignorance in matters outside of a certain specialty.

EXPENSES are much lower than at other schools of the same grade. The entire outlay for a year's instruction (giving one's whole time to the study of music) need not exceed $350, including all necessary expenses. Many students get along comfortably with a much smaller expenditure.

For further particulars, send for Catalogue.

MAPLEWOOD INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES, PITTSFIELD, MASS.

Will commence its forty-third year Sept. 26, 1883. Accomplished instructors, ample cabinets, and other illustrative apparatus, well-furnished rooms and excellent table, and the unrivalled beauty and salubrity of its location,—five hours from Boston and New York,—have given it a very high rank among institutions of its class.

The terms are very moderate, and a liberal discount is made from them for daughters of clergymen and teachers. Also, pupils self-dependent and needing aid are sometimes allowed to pay their reduced bills after leaving school, and getting positions in which they can earn the means for payment.

Address Rev. C. V. SPEAR, Principal.

GANNETT INSTITUTE

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

69 CHESTER SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

REV. GEORGE GANNETT, A. M. - - - - - Principal.

LOCATION AND BUILDINGS.—It has one of the most beautiful and desirable locations in the city. The school building was erected expressly for the purposes of the Institute, on the most approved plan of architecture and interior arrangements. The entire establishment is heated with steam, and has all the modern conveniences.

ORGANIZATION.—It was organized twenty-nine years since, and its plan from the beginning has been eminently liberal and comprehensive.

DEPARTMENTS.—It has three departments: the Preparatory, Intermediate, and Senior. Thoroughness in character and methods of instruction characterizes each. The Senior Department embraces a four-years' course, which includes the Higher Mathematics, History, Philosophy, the Sciences, Ancient and Modern Languages, Art Studies, and the various Literatures.

A PARTIAL course may be taken, or a selection of studies is permitted.

DIPLOMAS are awarded to those who shall have honorably completed the prescribed course.

TEACHERS AND PROFESSORS.—In every department, such teachers and professors only are employed as have been enriched by years of eminent success in their work; and so large is the board of instruction, in proportion to the number of pupils, that an unusual division of labor is secured.

LIBRARIES.—A Library of several thousand volumes, and a large and valuable Art Library, afford every incentive to reading, study, and research, outside of the text-books.

A HOME is found here for twenty young ladies and six of the lady teachers, who constitute a family of refining intimacies and social culture.

A LECTURE COURSE.—From eighty to one hundred lectures, upon History, Literature, Philosophy, Science, and Art, are given annually, not to displace, but to supplement the class-room training.

DRAWING AND PAINTING.—In this department, a resident lady teacher, of well-known ability, is occupied during all the school hours. The Studio is filled with casts, natural and artificial objects, as well as flats.

IN FRENCH, GERMAN, AND ITALIAN, native teachers are employed, and a competent American lady superintends the class-room work.

TERMS for Day Pupils, from $80 to $200 per annum.

TERMS for Family Pupils: Board, and Tuition in English, French, Latin, German, Drawing, Penmanship, Physical Culture, and Lectures, $500 for the scholastic year. A discount is made to the daughters of clergymen.

The EXTRAS are Music, Painting, and Italian.

The thirtieth year commences Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1883.

Wheaton Female Seminary, NORTON, MASS.,

Was founded by Hon. Laban Wheaton, of Norton, in 1834, in memory of his daughter, to be a school for Christian education. It is on the Boston, Clinton, Fitchburg and New Bedford Railroad (Old Colony, Northern Division), within an hour's ride of Boston, and is in connection with all important points by railway and telegraph. It is in a healthful village, entirely free from all temptations and excitements. It is not a large school, and gives, therefore, opportunity for familiar personal intercourse between teachers and pupils. It has a choice reference library of nearly four thousand volumes, one of the best furnished laboratories in the country, ample philosophical apparatus, an observatory with a fine telescope, and cabinets of natural history, all of which are accessible for study.

The design of the school is to impart an accurate, thorough, and practical education. It especially aims, as it has done from the beginning, to base such education upon a hearty faith in the Bible, and a conscientious Christian life.

The regular course of study for graduation covers four years. But pupils can join temporarily such classes as they are prepared to enter, without pursuing the full course.

The expense for the regular course, including tuition, board, room, and heating, lights, washing (twelve pieces per week), $255 per year. The regular tuition of the daughters of clergymen and missionaries is remitted upon application before the beginning of a term. Several scholarships of one hundred dollars each are provided for deserving pupils.

Further information, catalogues, etc., furnished on request to the Principal,

Miss A. ELLEN STANTON, Norton, Mass.

ABBOT ACADEMY,

ANDOVER, MASS.

Andover, on the Boston and Maine Railroad, about one hour's ride from Boston, Salem, and Lowell, is one of the most beautiful and healthful of New England villages. It is the seat of one of the oldest and largest Theological Seminaries in the country, and of Phillips Academy, the first incorporated and most celebrated classical school. The moral and intellectual atmosphere created by these collected institutions, their history and traditions, tend most strongly to promote the mental and moral development of those who come here for instruction.

Abbot Academy is located in the immediate neighborhood of these institutions, and enjoys many incidental advantages through them, while easy access to Boston and Cambridge brings within its reach fine Music, Art Galleries, Museums, Cabinets, and the Botanical Garden, to all of which, classes with their teachers have occasional access. The Academy has a fine Clark Telescope, good working cabinets, models, and apparatus of its own.

The course of study covers four years, and embraces all the usual academical studies, special attention being given to Mental and Moral Philosophy, English, and General Literature, the History of Art, and to the Latin, French, and German Languages. Superior advantages are afforded in Music, Drawing, Painting, and Elocution.

The domestic arrangements are peculiarly homelike. The school is divided into three separate families in separate houses, each under its own matron and teachers. One of these families is made up wholly of pupils in French, in which language the daily table-talk is carried on under the direction of the French teacher. Another family is occupied with German in like manner.

The school has been successfully conducted for over twenty years by the same principal, assisted by an able corps of teachers, whose constant endeavor is to so educate girls that they may mature into healthful, cultivated, earnest, Christian women.

The total expenses for board, including fuel, lights, and washing, and for tuition, except music and drawing, is $300 per annum.

Application for admission or information should be made to

Miss PHILENA McKEEN, Principal, Andover, Mass.

In connection with the Semi-Centennial Celebration, a Catalogue of all past pupils and teachers of the Academy, with their present address, was published, and is for sale by Mr. W. F. DRAPER. Price, 60 cents. Also a full history of the School by the Principal. Price, by mail, postpaid, with eight illustrations, $3.20; with one illustration, $2.20.

COMPARATIVE WORTH OF BAKING POWDERS.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS AS TO PURITY AND WHOLESOMENESS OF THE ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances." Page 370

"E. G. LOVE, Ph. D."

"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure.

"H. A. MOTT, Ph. D."

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra alba, or any other injurious substance.

"HENRY MORTON, Ph. D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology."

"I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome.

S. DANA HAYES, State Assayer, Mass."

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, and at State Fairs throughout the country.

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal indorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world.

NOTE.—The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A one-pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated in the above diagram. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by experience that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than the ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and besides, affords the advantage of better work.

A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair-minded person of these facts.

* While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.

PREFATORY NOTE.

THIS issue is made by the direction of the National Council of the Congregational Churches assembled at St. Louis, Mo., in 1880.

By order of the Council a copy is sent to each church, and one to each minister, by mail, post-paid.

The addresses of the officers and committees of the National Council will be found on page 223, and of the State organizations upon page 224 and those immediately following. The addresses of officers of our benevolent societies are on pages 37-53; of the professors of the theological seminaries on pages 55-63.

The next session of the National Council will commence Thursday, September 20, 1883, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and will doubtless continue into the following week. The place is not fully determined, but will doubtless be an eastern State.

WORDS FROM THE COMPILER.

THE Year-Book, being issued this year much earlier than of late years, may lack an occasional item, for whose securing time did not allow. Yet it is believed that such omissions are very few. Minnesota statistics are out of place and not put in order, inasmuch as their tables, being destroyed by fire in Minneapolis, had to be reconstructed; and, besides, the compiler felt obliged to allow a little delay in consequence. More labor has been bestowed on the present issue than on any preceding. The several State secretaries have, as usual, given every help, — New York and Kansas even forwarding their tables in manuscript. Thanks are particularly due to Miss Stone, assistant librarian in the Congregational library at Boston.

Increased space is this year given to the National Benevolent Societies. A convenience is added, for the first time, by indexing the ordinations, installations, dismissals, marriages, and obituary record, — the pages where these occur being now all given with the names in the general Alphabetical List of Ministers.

Steady improvement is made in the State Minutes, but there are some yet to be completed, and the compiler unweariedly repeats a few important suggestions: —

I. As to churches: Each State should give to the world:

1. A complete list of churches, and count them correctly.
  2. Every church should have its post-office address (if different from its name as given) with the church in the tables. See how handsomely Ohio does this. Forty-two Year-Books 1882, sent to churches, were returned by postmasters as by direction printed on wrappers; all but two were correctly mailed, but there were no such offices!
  3. List of all new churches since the last issue, with full dates of organization; list of all dropped churches; and list of all changes of name; so as to trace every church through successive years. Few States do this accurately, and the compiler of the national statistics has to compare lists, and exercise his own judgment.

II. As to organizations: Give the list of officers; and the exact date and place of the next session. Some States never do this, notwithstanding urgent entreaties.

---

III. As to ministers: —

1. The first name is indispensable. It should invariably be given in the general alphabetical list, and ought to be given in the column of pastoral supply. If for biographical purposes only, the first name should always be given.
  2. In the tables, licentiates and ministers of other denominations should be so designated as such, and never included in the number of Congregational ministers. To do otherwise is dishonest, as it represents to the world greater numbers than we have.
  3. Give to every one the year of ordination. One State gives none.
  4. Give post-office addresses correctly. Some now given are not in the official government lists. The result is that the Year-Book is blamed for what is not its fault, after searching the "Postal Guide" in every suspicious case.

IV. It would be a great convenience, and facilitate the issue of the Year-Book, if State Minutes would follow the order of items in general use. Any number of blanks wanted to collect these statistics in any State will be furnished on application to the secretary of the National Council.

V. We need also to know, and a State Summary in State Minutes should tell us readily :

1. How many churches are served by installed pastors?
2. How many churches have pastors not installed (meaning only ordained Congregational ministers)?
3. How many churches are statedly supplied at date by licentiates or ministers of other denominations?
4. How many churches are vacant?

Then, add up these four, and see if they make the proper total !

---

In the same connection, a State Summary should tell us :

1. How many ordained Congregational ministers are pastors in the State?
2. How many ordained Congregational ministers are acting pastors in the State?
3. How many ordained Congregational ministers are without charge in the State?

Not half the States do now give reliable answers to these questions. The absence of these answers and the frequent omission of anything to designate (in the tables) licentiates and men of other denominations, require laborious corrections of the lists in those tables, and days of needless labor and delay in compiling these figures for our national statistics. Still, this year showed a manifest improvement.

---

VI. Items should be added up. In one State last year, eight items of benevolence had to be added by the compiler for each of two hundred and three churches, to obtain the amount for each church. This year the compiler of the Year-Book concluded to give his time to having the book published promptly, and so was unable to "do" these two hundred and three sums in arithmetic across a page; and that column is blank. A table not worth a "total" is rarely worth printing. Summary tables should be found in every State issue, and made correctly.

---

VII. States should be kept distinct in their totals. That is, if tables unite Presbyterian and Congregational churches, the statistical world needs a distinct total for each, as is well given in New Hampshire. Likewise, if a State Association includes churches of another State, there should be distinct totals for each State, as is well done in New York and in Ohio, but is not done at all in some other States.

---

VIII. Alphabetical lists of ministers in the State issues should be confined to and include ordained Congregational ministers. These lists are implicitly and necessarily followed by the Year-Book.

---

IX. A proper Year-Book should include matter not yet ventured upon :

1. A list of all church clerks.
2. A list of all the superintendents of Sunday Schools. Additional columns should also be given, such (for instance) as given in Nebraska. The Sunday-school work of the respective churches is entitled to this facility.
3. A list of officers (complete) and needed information as to their work, of all our State home-missionary societies, our various local charitable societies, ministerial-aid societies, and, indeed, everything needed to show completely through what methods our people are doing their work. Inquiries are continually made for such information. The secretary of the Council is applied to, in increasing frequency, for detailed information, by brethren in all parts of the land, and from across the ocean.

Such additions, and their additional expense, the publishing committee have not felt authorized to make. The National Benevolent Societies, however, will be found to have increased space in this issue.

TREASURER'S STATEMENT.

By the Council, at St. Louis, the following resolution was passed:—

Resolved, That the Treasurer be instructed to publish each year in the Year-Book the condition of the treasury and the amounts received and lacking from the several State bodies.

In accordance with the above resolution the following statement is made, which brings the accounts up to the 15th of November, 1882, the limit set by the Publishing Committee for receiving matter for the Year-Book of 1883; but no additional payments had been received up to Dec. 1st.

At the meeting of the Provisional Committee in Boston, July 13, 1882, it was "Voted, That, as the chief expenses of each year are incurred before adequate returns are received by the Treasurer, therefore the Treasurer of the Council be appointed to raise, by such means as he may devise, $3,000, or such part thereof as may be practicable, before the meeting of the Council of 1883."

The Treasurer will receive and gratefully acknowledge any sums of money sent to him in answer to this call, and he requests all who read the foregoing statement to aid in securing such a relief fund.

It will be seen from the foregoing statement that on the 13th of November, 1882, the treasury was paying interest on $3,364.27. There was due from the churches at the same date, $4,341.97. If the assessments had been paid in full, July 1, 1882, when they were due, there would have been in the treasury for the new year $951.14. This, added to the amount of assessment for 1883 ($2,836.63) — all of which should be paid by July 1, 1883, without fail — would give $3,787.77 for the expenses of the Council prior to its next meeting. If all this is paid promptly, it will barely cover these expenses, and it is therefore of the first importance that payments should be made by the treasurers of the State organizations at the earliest possible date. Connecticut and Illinois have set an example, as will be seen in the schedule, which, if followed by all the States, would bring relief at once.

Will not the treasurers of the State bodies divide this burden of perplexity among themselves, and promptly remit to me the sums due, trusting their churches for an honorable and Christian settlement at their convenience? Will not the State bodies, or the churches which compose them, authorize the local treasurers to do this, and thus divide among the forty-five constituents the embarrassment which now is felt by a single individual? Practical economy demands that the assessments be paid as early as July for each year.

LAVALETTE PERRIN, Treasurer.

In making the selection, different sections of the country have been drawn upon somewhat in proportion to the membership of the Congregationalist churches in each. The list embraces men who are understood to represent different shades of opinion while holding fast to the essential truths of the gospel. With a large proportion of pastors are joined representatives of theological seminaries and colleges, of the religious press and of the missionary work of our churches. Letters responding to these appointments indicate that those designated will enter on the work with interest and helpfulness, and that they will be able to co-operate in mutual respect and congeniality of spirit and aim for the important object contemplated.

NOTE.—The number of deaths reported (sixty) is smaller than usual, partly because we go to press too early to include December in this record. The average age (sixty-four years, two months, eleven days) is nearly four years less than the record of 1881, and less than in any year since 1875. But, even at the lowest, the average age of ministers is high. The limitations of the tables do not in all cases admit exactness. In the table of theological education, students who did not graduate are counted, and without distinction from graduates; but a name occurring in more than one seminary list is not repeated; and in the college lists a few students who were not alumni are counted with the graduates.

The compiler renews his earnest request to friends and to the secretaries of the State bodies, for prompt information of the death of Congregational ministers, and for full and exact information on the model of the sketches above given. Obituary and eulogy beyond, it is impossible to use here.

OUR PRESENT FIELD includes twenty-one missions, carrying the gospel to Northern and Western Mexico, to the islands of the Pacific, to Spain and Austria, to European, Western, Central, and Eastern Turkey, to Western and Southern India, to Ceylon, to Southeastern and West Central Africa, to Southern and Northern China, and to Japan. This work includes direct evangelistic effort through missionaries and native helpers; an immense educational trust, extending from the primary school to the college and theological seminary; Sunday-school instruction; the preparation, publication, and circulation, in over twenty different languages, of books, tracts, and newspapers; assistance in the erection of buildings for churches and schools; grants in aid to feeble churches and to native home-missionary societies; the humane service of missionary physicians, sometimes in care of large dispensaries and hospitals; also charitable ministry, continuous and varied, to the sick, the poor, and the oppressed. All these departments upon the foreign field are economically managed under one efficient and experienced administration.

OUR PRESENT FORCE, now occupying seven hundred and seventy-seven stations and out-stations, numbers one hundred and fifty-one ordained missionaries, of whom five are physicians, ten physicians not ordained, two of them women, and two hundred and fifty-one other assistant missionaries, making a total from this country of four hundred and twelve. Our native force is more than four and a half times this number, a total of 1,893, of whom five hundred and seventy-six are native pastors and preachers.

OUR NATIVE CHURCHES, two hundred and eighty-one in number, not including those of the Hawaiian Islands, enroll 19,105 members, of which number 1,664 were received last year, on confession of their faith in Christ. These 19,000 members of native churches, giving round numbers, are distributed as follows: Papal lands, 300; Africa, 600; China, 900; Japan, 900; Micronesia, 3,500; India, including Ceylon, 5,200; Turkey, 7,700. The Hawaiian Islands would add several thousand more.

OUR TRAINING AND THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS, including station classes, sixty-one in number, are giving instruction to 2,174 young men, many of them fitting for the Christian ministry.

OUR GIRLS' SCHOOLS, of the higher order, thirty-nine in number, enroll 1,655 pupils, many of them fitting to be teachers, many of them to be Christian wives and mothers, constituting the educational power of Christian homes for the next generation.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS, eight hundred and one in number, enroll nearly 33,000 pupils, making a total of 36,543 under Christian instruction. These 36,500 persons under instruction, giving round numbers, are distributed as follows: China, 200; Japan, 300; Papal lands, 300; Africa, 1,200; Micronesia, 2,000; India, including Ceylon, 16,000; Turkey, 16,500. These figures do not include the additional thousands of the Hawaiian Islands.

REGULAR DONATIONS FROM THE CHURCHES, which during the past five years, including what was received through the woman's boards, have averaged about $350,000, need to be doubled in order to meet the demands of our growing work. With the exception of new missions, to which what remains of the Otis bequest has been set apart and appropriated by the Board, the entire work, including all attempted evangelistic and educational advance, must be sustained by the current annual receipts. The need of greatly enlarged donations from churches and individuals must be apparent to every one.

MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCE. For missionary intelligence, read regularly our monthly magazines, The Missionary Herald, Life and Light, and Mission Dayspring, the latter for children and Sunday schools. Sketches of missionary fields, leaflets for distribution, Sunday-school concert exercises, and missionary maps can be obtained at 1 Somerset street, Boston.

AMERICAN COLLEGE AND EDUCATION SOCIETY.

FORMED by the union, in 1874, of the "American Education Society" and the "Society for the Promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education." The American Education Society was organized and received its charter from Massachusetts in the year 1816. The College Society, as the other organization was popularly called, was formed in 1843. It was for years a voluntary association without a charter. In 1872 it received a charter also from the State of Massachusetts. These two organizations were brought together under a new charter from the same State, in May, 1874.

OFFICERS, 1881-82 (Office, No. 10 Congregational House, Boston, Mass.).

President. — NATHANIEL SHIPMAN, of Hartford, Conn.

Vice-President. — Rev. ISAAC P. LANGWORTHY, D.D., Boston, and SAMUEL HOLMES, New York city.

Secretary. — Rev. INCREASE N. TARBOX, D. D., Boston.

Treasurer. — JAMES M. GORDON, Boston.

Assistant Treasurer. — Rev. A. H. CLAPP, D. D., Bible House, New York.

Income for the year ending April 30, 1882, $92,815.13. Of the whole income, $64,228.95 was contributed for colleges and paid to them. The sum of $20,782.33 was paid to students fitting for the ministry. The balance was for current expenses.

In both departments the Society has had a large agency in the formation of society throughout the great West. The men who were pioneers in the work of preaching the gospel in the new settlements, and in the founding of churches and schools, were largely educated by this Society. The colleges which are now among the foremost in these Western fields were largely built up by the same agency.

The whole number of young men assisted by the Society in their studies for the ministry since 1816 is 6,952. The institutions at the West which have been assisted by the Society since 1843 are the following, viz.: Western Reserve, Illinois, Wabash, and Marietta Colleges, and Lane Theological Seminary. These five are the institutions which the Society took under its care at the beginning, in 1843. Those which have since been received on the list are Knox, Beloit, Thayer, Wittenberg, Oberlin, and Berea Colleges, the College of California, Pacific University, Olivet, Ripon, Iowa, Carleton, Doane, Drury, Washburn, and Colorado Colleges, and Pacific Theological Seminary.

The ten last named are still upon the Society's list.

The number of young men now receiving assistance from the Society is not far from 260.

At the time when the Education Society began its work of helping young men into the Christian ministry, in the year 1816, the condition of things in this country was very peculiar. The great movement of emigration toward the West was setting in with strength. The American Board had been organized a few years before, and the cause of Foreign Missions was taking strong hold upon the churches. But "the laborers were few." Ever since the close of the Revolutionary war, the churches had been in a confused and preoccupied state, and the number of men coming forward for the work of the ministry was alarmingly small. It was in such a state of things that this Society began its enterprise. Through the aid thus afforded, and through the impulses thus imparted, a host of living preachers was raised up to go with the moving colonies out into the fields of the West, or to go far hence to the Gentiles, to proclaim the Gospel of salvation through Jesus Christ. A work of inestimable importance for the Christianizing and civilizing of our own land was accomplished by this instrumentality. The ministers raised up by this Society became to a large extent the pioneers in the way of founding churches, schools, colleges throughout all those Western fields, while in foreign lands half the missionaries laboring under the care of the American Board had been brought forward in the same way.

THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Was organized May 25, 1853, at Boston, and received its charter from the Massachusetts Legislature, April 12, 1854. Its present officers are:—

SAMUEL D. WARREN, Boston, President.

RUFUS S. FROST, Boston, Chairman of Board of Directors.

SAMUEL T. SNOW, Boston, Treasurer.

[Librarian.

REV. ISAAC P. LANGWORTHY, D. D., Boston, Corresponding Secretary and

REV. DANIEL P. NOYES, Wilmington, Mass., Recording Secretary.

MISS MARY E. STONE, Boston, Assistant Librarian.

DIRECTORS.—Rev. Alonzo H. Quint, D. D.; Rev. John O. Means, D. D.; Rev. H. M. Dexter, D. D.; Rufus S. Frost; Rev. N. G. Clark, D. D.; James White; Frank Wood; Rev. Jos. T. Duryea, D. D.; Rev. John L. Withrow, D. D.; Rev. Jos. B. Clark; Marquis F. Dickinson; Edward A. Studley; S. Brainerd Pratt; Rev. I. N. Tarbox, D. D.; together with the Treasurer and Secretaries.

The object of this Association is “to establish and perpetuate the religious history and literature of New England, and for the erection of a suitable building for the accommodation of the same, and for the use of charitable societies; also to do such acts as may promote the interest of Congregational churches,” etc.

Its library is intended for reference, having as its specialties everything published by the Pilgrims and Puritans, and their predecessors, contemporaries, and successors, which states or illustrates the principles and polity of Congregationalism, its history, its doctrine, its influence, and indeed the same things in regard to every denomination; thus everything ecclesiastical.—theology, controversy, results of councils, sermons, church manuals, minutes of religious bodies, every one; Year-Books, and all such like; also all local histories, county, State, and United States histories, genealogies, centennial, ordination, funeral, and all historical sermons, all commentaries on the Scriptures, every biography, national, State, and municipal statistics, printed reports of all kinds, catalogues, obituary records, and inaugurals of all our literary institutions, together with any manuscripts, autographs, or mementos which relate to the objects above named.

On the 20th of May, 1882, the library had 29,219 books — 6,265 of which were duplicates — and over 125,000 pamphlets, including duplicates, secured almost exclusively by gifts, as there has never been a dollar appropriated from the building fund with which to buy a book, nor can there be until the present onerous debt is greatly reduced. Duplicates furnish a basis for exchanges, for which the Librarian has large facilities, and of which he avails himself to the uttermost; and in this way he can assure all kindly disposed persons that they can send him no printed pamphlet or book that he cannot make useful here.

The Library has now more of the early publications of our country and of the mother country which illustrate the principles and relate the deeds of our first settlers than any other public library in the United States; but it is still lacking very much of this sort that is scattered here and there, essentially useless where it is, but would be invaluable here; also much more of the later and contemporaneous issues of the same general character found in every parish and town more or less. Now, let these be collected and sent here by some good friend in each church, as a few have already done.

The Congregational House is a four-story granite structure, one hundred and three feet on Beacon Street, and ninety-three feet on Somerset Street, having stores on lower floors on Beacon Street, and rooms above for the A. B. C. F. M., the Woman's Board, the American College and Education Society, American Missionary Association, City Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society, Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, American Peace Society, the Congregationalist, etc. The fire-proof library room is in a connected building; accessible, light, pleasant, safe, and has capacity for more than 100,000 volumes.

The great WANT of this Association is the hearty sympathy and co-operation of every Congregationalist, expressed in "one fair contribution" from each of the more than 2,307 Congregational churches that have not made it; the gift of at least one dollar from every member, to be made a life member of the Association; the gift of the twenties, fifties, hundreds, and thousands from the more highly favored; testamentary gifts, if not earlier bestowed. Then this great property would be disencumbered, and all our strictly benevolent societies would be forever free from rent, thus insuring a good dividend to the cause of Christ upon every benefaction.

Let all remittances and communications be addressed to

THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

Incorporated June 11, 1853.

President. — Rev. E. B. WEBB, D. D., Boston, Mass.

Corresponding Secretary. — Rev. L. HENRY COBB, D. D., 59 Bible House, New York city.

Treasurer. — N. A. CALKINS, 59 Bible House, New York city.

The American Congregational Union was chartered under statute of the State of New York in 1853, mainly for the purpose of aiding regularly organized and legally incorporated Congregational churches in building houses of worship and parsonages.

To do its work, the Union elects, at its annual meeting, on the second Thursday in May, a Board of "not less than five nor more than thirty Trustees." (The present number is eighteen.) That Board chooses a Chairman, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, and two Counsellors outside its own number. In and of its own number, it appoints two Standing Committees of three, — one on Finance and one on Applications, — and subcommittees as occasion may require. The Board and its committees meet every month; oftener if necessary.

The services of the Board and its committees are wholly gratuitous. The only salaried officers of the Union are the Corresponding Secretary and the Treasurer's Clerk.

From the first, the Union has had the invaluable aid of the Home Missionary superintendents and secretaries of the several States and Territories where its work has been done. The Union and churches owe a large debt of gratitude to these brethren for volumes of correspondence, thousands of miles of travel, sermons, addresses, all sorts of labor in the interest of church building.

As their work grows and our work spreads, the Board has this year chosen twenty-nine well-known and honored brethren, in as many States and Territories, where most of the work of the Union is going forward, who, as co-advisers with the Home Missionary superintendents and secretaries and us, shall aid in furnishing us the latest and most reliable information on any matter affecting the work of the Union; as that of recovering funds invested in churches, that for any cause have lapsed; that of stirring up the aided and all other churches to remember their obligations in annual collections; that of presenting the cause at State and local conferences, etc., etc.

The churches aided by the Union in building houses of worship, at the time of receiving aid voluntarily pledge an ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION to the treasury. Nearly $60,000 have been thus contributed. Besides this, more than $50,000 have been refunded to the Union in the form of loans paid, and from the proceeds of houses sold or burned. The entire sum thus returned has gone to aid other churches.

Besides the above-named officers and appointees of the Union, several of the State Associations are appointing one or more of their own members to represent the Union within their own borders. One State (Iowa) appoints a committee for the Union within the bounds of each local conference. Added to this, the pastor of every Congregational church is made the agent of the Union for giving all needed information, raising funds, and in every possible way carrying forward the work of building houses for the worship of God. We have thus a network of influences in every State and Territory, which, if vigorously worked, cannot fail to secure the needed means and push church erection to the last limit of reasonable demand. In what way could this work be more thoroughly organized, or its interests be more carefully guarded? It is the work of the churches. In the good time coming, when every pastor and every church shall come to regard this vital branch of the Lord's work as his, and shall let no year pass without generous aid for this work, sent direct to the treasury of the Union, we shall be able to say to every New Testament church, as soon as organized, "Arise and build: all necessary aid will be forthcoming."

To secure the utmost economy in disbursing the funds, with the strongest safeguards against loss, the Union sends to every church asking aid a blank application, to be filled out and certified by the trustees and pastor, carefully examined and fully indorsed by the Home Missionary superintendent or secretary, and the secretary of the Union in and for the State or Territory where the church is, and forwarded to the office in New York. The application is then carefully examined. If found defective in any essential particular, it is returned for completion. When complete, all papers are laid before the Committee on Applications. No application comes before the Board till fully indorsed by this committee. The Board, in regular session, makes the grant upon unquestionable evidence that the church is legally incorporated; that it holds its property in fee simple; that its house is completed and free of incumbrance in "law, equity, and honor," and insured against loss by fire. The church executes a trust or loan mortgage covering the amount granted by the Union and all moneys contributed by friends outside the limits of the church asking aid. Funds thus given to Congregational church building are in this way made absolutely secure to the denomination, and to this work.

At the date of this writing (Dec. 1, 1882), the Union has outstanding pledges to 100 churches to the amount of $48,504.61. To pay these pledges the Treasurer has only $32,282.07.

By the aid of two generous legacies, and a direct gift of $5,000, the churches and individual friends of the Union have brought the receipts of the treasury up to $48,005.01 in the seven months of the year already past. (The year begins May 1.) By vigorous effort on the part of all our churches and generous friends, we may hope for the $100,000 called for at the beginning of the year. Never were the demands more urgent.

An encouraging interest has been manifested in parsonage building. $2,479.74 have been sent to the treasury for this branch of the work. Forty-nine churches have asked aid. Ten or eleven only can have it, till more is put into this treasury. How much longer shall the great majority of our brethren at the front be practically homeless? Their patience is heroic. Will the churches match it with beneficence as generous?

THE HOME MISSIONARY, a monthly magazine, published by the Society, at sixty cents a year, including postage, gives a running account of the progress of the work in all parts of the country, largely from the pens of the superintendents and missionaries personally engaged in it. The monthly issue is 25,000 copies. An ANNUAL REPORT sums up the results of the year.

For nearly fifty-seven years the Society has been organizing churches, mainly in the West, and aiding in the support of their ministers till those churches are able to assume the whole expense. Its missionaries have from the first organized Sunday schools, provided proper teachers for them, and by watchful oversight have secured their permanence and highest usefulness.

In connection with the labor of its missionaries, 4,259 churches have been organized, and 2,156 have come to self-support. It has collected and disbursed in cash nearly $9,371,500, and in clothing, books, and other supplies, largely the offerings of Christian women, more than $1,356,000; in all, $10,727,500. The additions to the churches have been 303,724. Schools, academies, and colleges in nearly every Western State are among the direct fruits of the work.

The number of missionaries employed in its fifty-sixth year (1881-82) was 1,070, 699 of them in States and Territories west of New York. They preached regularly in 2,568 stations, and at frequent intervals in many hundreds more. The number of Sunday-school and Bible-class scholars was over 104,000. The additions to the churches were 6,032; 3,291 of them on profession of faith. One hundred and six churches were organized, and thirty-six came to self-support. Last year's receipts were, in cash, $340,778.47; in supplies, $60,000; in all, $400,778.47.

At least $350,000 in cash are needed this year properly to sustain the missionaries now in the field. To take up only such new work as the providence and Spirit of God manifestly call upon the Society to assume at once, $50,000 more are imperatively required. At nearly every meeting of the Executive Committee, chosen men are sent to new fields at the front, where they are most needed, but where their support involves heavy outlay by the Society. For securing the means essential to the carrying on of this great work the Society depends, under God, on the zealous co-operation of the pastors and members of the Congregational churches of the land.

It aims:

First, — To provide and furnish to pastors, teachers, and Sunday schools, aids to the study of the Bible, and all needful Sunday-school literature.

Second, — To systematize and give direction to Sunday-school movements, to increase enthusiasm among the churches in this important work, and to direct their charities toward establishing Sunday schools, and providing weak ones with such equipments as shall enable them to be efficient.

Third, — To provide and prepare general religious reading, and to distribute books and tracts among the destitute.

Fourth, — To set forth the history and explain the principles and polity of Congregational churches.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT. — The Society publishes Sunday-school lesson-helps of four different grades: for teachers, senior, intermediate, and primary scholars. It issues two periodicals weekly, and other literature of different kinds, for Sunday schools. Careful examination of Sunday-school books, as fast as they are issued by different publishers, is made by a competent committee, and reports of results are printed. Valuable books and tracts on general religious subjects, as well as on matters of special interest to Congregationalists, are issued annually. Orders for any books, by whomsoever published, are promptly filled at the lowest rates.

This department is self-sustaining, though unable, from want of capital, to meet evident and great opportunities for usefulness. It is in no sense a private enterprise. Its profits are the property of the churches, held in trust by the Board of Managers.

MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT. — This is entirely distinct from the business department. In May, 1882, the American Home Missionary Society, by vote of its Executive Committee, formally recommitted the missionary Sunday-school work to the Congregational Sunday-School and Publishing Society. This Society, during the year ending May 1, 1881, aided about 250 Sunday schools, mostly in the West and South. During the year ending May 1, 1882, it has aided 712 Sunday schools, of which over 300 were new schools, a large proportion of which would not have been organized without aid from this Society. Many of these schools are connected with churches under the care of the A. H. M. S., the A. M. A., the New West Education Commission, and other benevolent organizations.

This Society has now appointed Missionaries in Colorado, Nebraska, Missouri, Oregon, and Washington Territory.

Congregational churches are increasing in numbers more slowly than those of any other evangelical denomination, while their gifts for extending the gospel are the largest of any in proportion to their membership. Statistics show that in other denominations the organization and vigorous administration of Sunday-school societies have resulted in largely increased additions to the churches. We believe that no denomination in these days can expect any great future which does not strengthen and diligently use this important arm of the church.

During the last official year of the Society (May to May) the contributions received for benevolent work amounted to $5,443.27. Since that time the ratio has nearly doubled. This amount is altogether inadequate to maintain worthily the work for Sunday schools that is imperatively necessary. The Missionary Committee have felt compelled to incur obligations in advance, for the coming year, in the employment of men and appropriation of supplies amounting to not less than $15,000.

In addition to all this we have received several urgent appeals to appoint Sunday-school missionaries, from State Associations, home-missionary superintendents, and representative ministers in Western and Southern States. The amount to be expended the coming year should not be less than $30,000.

The opportunity to establish Sunday schools as the beginnings of churches in the new lands, and to promote Sunday-school work, is great; the need at this crisis is urgent. The future prosperity of all the benevolent work of our denomination requires it. The good results from it are assured.

All money contributed to the Society (unless otherwise specified) will be used for the work we have described. This Society is recommended by the National Council and by the State Associations as one of those which should receive the gifts of the churches.

Contributions for missionary work should be sent to E. LAWRENCE BARNARD, Treasurer. Correspondence concerning the business department should be directed to GEORGE P. SMITH; concerning the Sunday-school benevolent department, to Rev. A. E. DUNNING.

THE NEW WEST EDUCATION COMMISSION.

Incorporated Nov. 3, 1879.

Principal office at Chicago, Illinois.

President, Rev. F. A. NOBLE, D. D., 534 West Washington street, Chicago.

Vice-President, Rev. SIMEON GILBERT, D. D., 1st National Bank Building, Chicago,

Treasurer, Charles G. HAMMOND, 387 La Salle avenue, Chicago.

General Secretary, Rev. CHARLES R. BLISS, 112 W. Washington street, Chicago.

Recording Secretary, Rev. G. S. F. SAVAGE, D. D., W. Washington street, Chicago.

OBJECT.—The promotion of Christian civilization in Utah, and adjacent States and Territories, by the education of the children and youth under Christian teachers, and also by the use of such kindred agencies as may at any time be deemed wise.

The work now prosecuted by the Commission was commenced in June, 1878, in the incorporation of two academies, — one at Salt Lake City, in Utah, and the other at Santa Fe, in New Mexico. Pres. E. P. Tenney, of Colorado College, Rev. W. M. Barrows, then of Salt Lake, and Rev. John H. Barrows, then of Lawrence, Mass., were chiefly instrumental in establishing Salt Lake Academy; and Pres. Tenney and Rev. Charles R. Bliss were instrumental in establishing, two weeks later, Santa Fe Academy, both being accomplished in pursuance of plans laid the previous winter in Boston, by Messrs. Tenney and Bliss in the first instance, and shortly afterwards participated in by Rev. W. M. Barrows, who for some months had been revolving a similar plan regarding Salt Lake.

The academies were formed under the auspices of Colorado College, and by vote of its corporation; and the Principals, Prof. E. Benner and Prof. Wm. Scribby, were appointed professors in the College.

In 1879, by direction of Pres. Tenney, in behalf of the college, Mr. Bliss procured the incorporation of another academy, at the town of Albuquerque, New Mexico; and, in fact through the efforts of Prof. Paine, of Chicago, several gentlemen in that city started, through the agency of Messrs. Barrows and Benner, two other schools in Utah.

The Commission, having come into existence in the autumn of 1879, assumed from Pres. Tenney, in the following year, the care of the three academies already started, together with that of the other schools, taking upon itself all the responsibility of their maintenance, and discharging all obligations against them, these exceeding, at the time, $2,000, which sum was paid by its Treasurer by personal gift.

In the summer of 1880, by general direction of the Commission, Mr. Bliss procured the incorporation of the Academy at Trinidad, Colo., and also that of the Academy at Las Vegas, while three other schools were started in Utah.

During the following year, while the number of academies remained the same, the other schools, all in Utah, were increased to eleven, the whole employing thirty teachers, and having over twelve hundred pupils, more than five hundred of whom were, or had been, Mormons.

The current year bids fair to be more prosperous than any before it; for, while the Commission has withdrawn from Santa Fe, leaving the ground to the University of New Mexico, conducted by Prof. H. O. Ladd, a large development of the work has been made in Utah, especially in Salt Lake City.

Auditor — J. A. FELT. (All of Boston except as above.)

FOREIGN WORK. — This Board has under its care, in the foreign field, about ninety-four missionaries and assistant missionaries, who superintend the work among women in its various departments, and seventy-three Bible-readers, who go from house to house to read and teach the Scriptures; the number of women reached by nine of these in the city of Madura, India, alone is estimated at more than twenty thousand. The Board also supports twenty-seven boarding and high schools, besides the female department of Armenia College, and five homes for higher education, containing in all over one thousand pupils; and one hundred and fifteen village and day schools, with between two and three thousand pupils.

HOME DEPARTMENT OF WORK. — In this country there are connected with the Board twenty-one branch societies, each comprising not less than twenty auxiliaries and three conference associations, including a less number of societies. In these larger organizations there are between nine hundred and one thousand auxiliaries and more than six hundred mission circles among children and young people, making a total of over fifteen hundred organizations. The receipts from Jan. 1 to Nov. 18, 1882, were $109,883.25, including a gift of $20,000 for the Constantinople Home.

Treasurer. — Mrs. R. E. COLE. Auditor. — E. P. FLINT.

OUR AUXILIARIES. — We have over twenty-five so-called auxiliaries of older ladies, and about twenty of young people. Some of them can hardly be called "auxiliaries" in the strict sense of the term, because their funds are divided among other benevolent objects. But we have nearly fifty organizations which are interested in this work, — fifty tributaries, very small though many of them are, to the treasury of our Board. Our work is especially dependent upon the faithful collecting of the mites, — "the fragments that nothing be lost."

The annual period of study is divided into two terms. The last term of the present Seminary year will commence on Monday, March 19, and continue till the Anniversary, Thursday, June 14, to be followed by a vacation of twelve weeks. The first term of the next Seminary year will begin on Thursday, September 6. The Lectures to all the classes begin promptly; it is therefore important that all the students should be present at the beginning of the Seminary year.

A Fourth Year has been established for advanced study. All the departments are represented in the instruction of this year, special attention being given to the higher and more difficult questions — whether philosophical, critical, or more immediately practical — which are engaging the attention of Christian scholars, pastors, and teachers. One aim of the year is the promotion of productive work on the part of students. The required lectures, therefore, are fewer than in the preceding years, and special facilities are afforded for private research and study. Provision will be made for a system of scholarships and fellowships. Admission to this course is by vote of the Faculty.

The Library now numbers more than 40,000 volumes, is constantly increased, and is open every week-day for the examination and drawing of books. The accession of the library of the late Prof. Niedner, of Berlin, has proved to be of exceptional value. The Museum comprises a cabinet of minerals, objects relating to missionary life and work, a monumental slab from Nimroud, a relief model of Jerusalem, and a large and choice collection of Palestinian birds, animals, flowers, coins, inscriptions, photographs, etc. A well-furnished Gymnasium is open to the use of the students.

For information respecting Conditions of Membership, Course of Study, the Fourth Year, Expenses, and Beneficiary Aid, see Catalogue, which may be obtained by application to the President of the Faculty.

Those whose age or circumstances forbid the pursuit of the complete course of study may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be admitted to the studies of the Middle year, and continue their course with the full privileges of the Seminary.

COURSE OF STUDY. — Junior Year, Hebrew Grammar, Principles of Interpretation, Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; New Testament Greek; Introductory Philosophy, with text-book and lectures; Essays, and Lectures on Style and English Literature.

Middle Year, Systematic Theology; Ancient Church History; Exegetical studies continued; New Testament Greek continued; Vocal Culture and Oratory.

Senior Year, Mediæval and Modern Church History; Homiletics; Pastoral Theology and Church Polity; Exegetical studies continued; New Testament Greek continued.

THE DEPARTMENT OF NEW TESTAMENT GREEK has been added to the usual course in order to supplement the department of Exegesis by grammatical and lexical study of the language of the New Testament. It has been established not only for the benefit of those who have had a classical training, but also to provide instruction for those who enter the shorter course with only a rudimentary knowledge of the Greek. The instruction is at present given by the exegetical professors.

SPECIAL LECTURES. — A course of practical addresses on pastoral subjects is given each year by pastors selected for that service.

PREACHING. — As it is believed to be conducive to the best professional training to combine practice with theory, students are encouraged during the Senior year to preach as opportunity offers, and so far as they may without interfering with their Seminary duties. They usually take a license to preach at the close of the Middle year; and during the vacation are employed as missionaries of the Maine Missionary Society. Through the remainder of their course they are frequently called upon to supply vacant churches or missionary outposts.

POST-GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP. — A scholarship of fifteen hundred dollars has recently been established in Bowdoin College for the purpose of aiding any student who, after graduating at the Seminary, desires to take a post-graduate year at the College.

EXPENSES. — Each student is charged two dollars a year for incidental expenses. There is no other charge for tuition, room, furniture, library, or any privilege of the Seminary. The dormitory has been thoroughly repaired and refitted. The rooms are carpeted and furnished. The Washburn fund and some other funds were given expressly to aid members of the Seminary. The income of these funds will be distributed to those students whose circumstances require it, and will amount to about half the expense of board.

LIBRARY. — The Seminary has an excellent library, numbering between fifteen and sixteen thousand volumes, specially selected to meet the wants of the students. There is a permanent library fund of ten thousand dollars, with the income of which constant additions are made of the latest and most valuable literature.

The next Anniversary will occur on Wednesday, June 6, 1883.

The next Seminary year will open on Thursday, Sept. 13, 1883.

By its organization the Seminary is closely allied to the churches through the Pastoral Union, which annually elects the Trustees.

The plan of instruction is so arranged as to make the study of the Bible the chief feature of the entire course. The patrons, guardians, and teachers of the Institution are persuaded that an exegetical and experimental knowledge of the Divine Word should be sought first of all by candidates for the gospel ministry. They also believe that scholarly investigation, controlled and tempered by the spirit of truth, justifies unfaltering adherence to the doctrinal system set forth in the creed of the Pastoral Union, to which the professors annually give their assent, and which is in accord with the historical belief of New England Congregationalism, as embodied in accredited formulas. The effort is made to bring the several departments into such relations as shall give both scientific and vital unity to the course of instruction.

It is the aim of each Professor to strengthen, on the part of the students, the habit of personal investigation. Daily drills bring teachers and pupils into such close relations as favor mental activity and appropriate criticism, the purpose being to train as well as to teach, to illustrate correct methods while their results are presented.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.—Candidates for admission are expected to produce evidence that they are members of some Christian church, and that they have graduated at some college, or have made such literary acquisitions as, in the opinion of the Faculty, are an equivalent preparation for theological studies. They will be examined in reference to their personal piety and their motives in seeking the ministry.

Besides lectures on Congregationalism, Moot Councils are held, from time to time, for the purpose of making the student familiar with the principles and usages of our Church Polity.

Instruction is provided for all the classes in ecclesiastical music throughout each year.

EXPENSES.—No charge is made for tuition, room rent, or the use of the library. The rooms are supplied with the necessary articles of furniture.

Arrangements for board, at a common table, are made by the Trustees.

The average cost of board has been $3.50 per week. To defray this expense several scholarships have been endowed. Further assistance will be furnished towards defraying this expense, in proportion to the necessities of each student, at the discretion of the Faculty. Fuel and lights may be estimated at from $10 to $15 the year for each room. In addition the American Education Society renders aid to the amount of from $75 to $100 annually. Students who are licensed have occasional opportunities to preach for compensation.

CALENDAR.—There is but one term of study in the year, which begins on the second Thursday of September, and closes on the second Thursday of May. Students have opportunity in the long vacation to engage in some form of Christian activity, from which they may derive religious advantages and practical knowledge, as well as pecuniary benefit.

Persons desiring to join the Seminary are invited to address Prof. WILLIAM THOMPSON, D. D., Dean of the Faculty, from whom they will receive any needed additional information.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY IN OBERLIN COLLEGE,

OBERLIN, OHIO.

Opened for service in 1835.

FACULTY.

- Rev. JAMES H. FAIRCHILD, D. D., President, Finney Professor of Theology and Moral Philosophy.
 Rev. JOHN MORGAN, D. D., Professor Emeritus of New Testament Literature and Biblical Theology.
 Rev. JUDSON SMITH, D. D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Positive Institutions.
 Rev. WILLIAM G. BALLANTINE, Professor of Old Testament Language and Literature.
 Rev. G. FREDERICK WRIGHT, Professor of New Testament Language and Literature.
 Rev. ALBERT H. CURRIER, Holbrook Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
 Rev. WILLIAM B. CHAMBERLAIN, Instructor in Elocution.
 Rev. A. HASTINGS ROSS, Special Lecturer on Church Polity.

The Department of Theology is open for the admission of students of every denomination. Applicants must furnish satisfactory evidence of Christian character. A full collegiate education is regarded as furnishing a normal preparation for the course in Theology. Those who are not graduates of reputable colleges are required to furnish evidence of culture in all essential points, fully equivalent to that which is given by a college course, and are admitted only upon careful examination in the ordinary collegiate branches. Upon the satisfactory completion of the regular three-years' course, the Academic Degree of Bachelor of Divinity (B. D.) is conferred.

COURSE OF STUDY.—First Year.—Hebrew, and Old Testament Exegesis; Harmony of the Gospels, and Theology of the New Testament; Natural Theology; Evidences of Christianity; Authority and Inspiration of the Scriptures; and Introductory Lectures on the History of the Church.

Middle Year.—Systematic Theology; Hebrew Exegesis continued, and Literature of the Old Testament; introductory lectures on Homiletics; History of the Ancient Church; lectures on the Epistles.

Senior Year.—History of the Mediæval and Modern Church; History of Doctrine; Positive Institutions; Homiletics; written and extempore Sermons; Pastoral Theology; and lectures on the various forms of Scepticism.

LIBRARY.—The Libraries of the College contain over fifteen thousand volumes.

COUNCIL HALL, the building devoted exclusively to the Department of Theology, provides fully furnished rooms for fifty students. No expense is incurred for instruction, for the use of the libraries or of public rooms; and the students in Theology enjoy, without charge, the privileges of all the other departments of the College. The price of board is from $2.00 to $2.50 per week, or from $72 to $90 for the thirty-six weeks of the Theological year. Fuel and lights will not cost more than $15. Add the charge of $5.00 per term for the care of the building, and the entire necessary expenses of the year (not including clothing, travelling expenses, and books) need not exceed $100.

Help is granted from scholarship funds contributed by friends of the Department and by the churches of the State, and from the American Education Society. The amount ordinarily received from both these sources does not vary much from $150.

The opportunities for students to aid in meeting their expenses are sufficiently numerous. Some are employed as teachers in the Preparatory School connected with the College, and the amount received for teaching an hour each day exceeds the cost of board. Many vacant pulpits in the vicinity are supplied by theological students, for which compensation is rendered. During the summer vacation of fifteen weeks, all members of the Department may supply vacant pulpits in Home Missionary and other fields; and such opportunities are abundant.

The year of study in this Department consists of thirty-six weeks, in three terms. The anniversary occurs Saturday, June 30, 1883. The next year begins Wednesday, Sept. 12, 1883.

PACIFIC THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, OAKLAND, CAL.

Opened for service June, 1869.

FACULTY.

Rev. JOSEPH A. BENTON, D. D., Professor of Sacred Literature, and (pro tem.) of Homiletics.

Rev. GEORGE MOOAR, D. D., Professor of Systematic Theology, and (pro tem.) of Ecclesiastical History.

Lectures are given frequently by leading pastors of the State.

REGULAR STUDIES. — First Year. Greek; Hebrew; Sacred Geography and Antiquities; Origin, History, Authority, Inspiration, and Canon of the Bible; Interpretation of the Scriptures; Religions of the World, other than the Christian; Natural Science; Mental and Moral Science.

Second Year. — Biblical Theology; Greek; Hebrew; Exercises in the Exposition of the Scriptures; Systematic Theology; History of Doctrines; Elocution.

Third Year. — Pastoral Theology; Church History; Church Polity; Homiletics; Elocution; Connection of Natural Science with Religion. [An exercise in Hebrew and Greek Exegesis once each week during the second and third years.]

SPECIAL STUDIES. — In special cases, particular and modified courses of instruction will be given to those who cannot remain three years, or who, for other reasons, cannot take the full course of three years; and these courses of instruction will be adapted to the necessities of each person, it being understood that every one of this class will continue his studies as long as practicable.

PREPARATORY STUDIES. — Young men who have not had the advantage of a collegiate course, and who are, for good reasons, debarred from the prospect of such a course, are enabled to pursue literary and scientific studies under the direction of the Professors in the Hopkins Academy, immediately associated with the Seminary. These preparatory studies will vary with the requirements of each student.

CALENDAR. — The year consists of but one term, and begins with the first of September and ends with the middle of May. There will be a recess from the 20th of December to the 3d of January. Students should begin promptly with the term.

TERMS OF ADMISSION. — Credible evidence of piety, membership in some evangelical church, a collegiate education, or such other literary and scientific attainments as promise a fair degree of usefulness, will entitle all young men to the advantages of this Seminary. The benefits of the institution are accorded alike to students of all denominations of Christians.

EXPENSES. — There will be no charge for tuition, rent of rooms, or use of furniture. The Trustees will, as far as practicable, furnish text-books free to those who are in need, themselves being the judges of the necessity. Those who desire it can board on the premises at the rate of three dollars per week. Fifty cents additional will be charged for washing.

PECUNIARY AID. — The American Education Society will render aid to the pupils of this Seminary who are needy, who are college graduates, and who take the full course of three years. The amount bestowed will be, when possible, $100 a year to each beneficiary. Three paying scholarships yield an average of about $100 each per year to three beneficiaries.

An endeavor is continually made to provide for all the wants of every young man who wishes to take the full course of study, and every such person is urged to come to the Seminary, whether he has any means of his own or not. It is believed that the necessary expenses of a Theological School are less here than anywhere else in the Union.

No happier situation is known than the one occupied by this Seminary. The climate is unequalled for stimulating qualities, for mildness, and for general fineness. It is favorable to study every month in the year. It is a cure for many forms of invalidism. The scenery about the site is not inferior to that of the far-famed Bay of Naples itself. Both the beauties and the grandeurs of nature are within reach; and, to some extent, those of man, also.

RELATION TO THE UNIVERSITY.—The Divinity School is one of the Departments of Yale College. Its members receive from the Corporation, on completing their three years' course of study, the degree of B. D. They have access to the public collections of the University, such as the Library, the Peabody Museum, and the collection of paintings and statuary in the School of the Fine Arts. They are permitted to attend, free of expense, so far as will not conflict with their professional studies, the lectures and recitations in the College and the Sheffield Scientific School, and, if expecting to become foreign missionaries, those of the Medical Department.

COURSE OF STUDY.—The first year is devoted chiefly to the Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; the second year to Systematic Theology, Church History and Church Polity; the third year to Sacred Rhetoric and the History of Christian Doctrine. Additional lectures on Preaching and other important subjects are delivered before all the classes by eminent ministers and scholars in this country and Europe. There are also optional classes conducted by the Professors, in New Testament Introduction, German, Syriac, and Chaldee. Once a week there is a rhetorical exercise for all the classes. Instruction in vocal culture and elocution is continued through the entire course.

THE HOOKER FELLOWSHIP, for the encouragement of further theological study in this country or abroad, the income of which is $700 a year for two years after graduation, is offered to the class entering in September, 1882.

EXPENSES.—There is no charge for instruction, use of libraries, or room rent. The rooms, which will accommodate 150 students, are designed in general for only one occupant. Each room has a bedroom attached, and is carpeted and furnished with all needful furniture except bedclothing. The chief expenses for the session are for board, $2.50 to $4.00 a week; fuel and light, $25 to $30; and $10 a year for care of room and incidental expenses.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS AND OTHER AIDS.—Students whose circumstances require it are aided to the amount of $100 a year, from the income of scholarship funds. Additional aid to the amount of $75 to $100 is afforded by the American Educational Society to its beneficiaries.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE TERM.—The present annual term of study began on Thursday, Sept. 14, 1882, and continues till the third Thursday in May (Anniversary), when the vacation of four months, in which the students have the opportunity to engage in some form of remunerative labor, will commence. The next annual term will begin on Thursday, Sept. 13, 1883.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.—The Seminary is open on equal terms to students of all Christian denominations. Applications for admission, or for the annual Catalogue containing further information, may be made to the Secretary, Prof. GEORGE E. DAY, New Haven, Conn., or to any other member of the Faculty.

* A dash in the column of colleges implies that the student has never been connected with any college; the name of a college followed by a dash in place of year, implies that the student was connected with that college, but did not complete the course. An interrogation point in the place of year of graduation implies that the person is a graduate, but we do not know the year; this is found only in the Yale Seminary list, the only one which does not give this information. A more precise list of the colleges and universities is on pages 70 and 71.

† "Sen." means Senior. "Mid." Middle. "Jun." Junior. "Sp." means Special Course; and when followed by "S.", "M.", or "J.", means Special Course Senior, and the like. "R. L." means Resident Licentiate, "R. S." means Resident Student, "Grad." means Graduate Class, "Adv." means Advanced Class. "H. F." Yale, means "Horker Fellowship." At Andover, the persons marked "Mid." or "Jun." are of that standing, but are this year attending Senior lectures.

THE ANNUAL STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

THE following pages contain the statistics as collected in 1882 by the statistical secretaries of the several State organizations, and compiled for this publication by the secretary of the National Council, under vote of the publishing committee appointed by the Council.

The secretary, as heretofore, in no case presumes to insert or omit the name of church or minister on any authority but that of the State secretaries, representing their own organizations, or of Councils subsequent to the date of annual reports.

The contents of the statistics are as follows:—

1. The Statistics of the Churches and Pastors, by States.
2. List of Foreign Missionaries, arranged by Missions.
3. List of Ministers without Pastoral Charge, by States.
4. General Summary Tables for the year.
5. Tables of Summaries, 1858-1883.
6. Remarks upon the Statistics and Minor Explanations.
7. The National, State, and local Organizations of the Churches, with Officers, and dates of sessions in 1883.
8. Alphabetical List of Ministers, with P. O. address, and indexed to pages.
9. Alphabetical List of Licentiates.

RULES OF COMPILATION.

1. To arrange in alphabetical order everything capable of it; except that the churches in any one town or city are placed according to age.
2. To make each State list to conform strictly to the State boundaries. Churches or ministers reported by the Association of a State other than their own are, therefore, transferred to their proper places; and the summaries are correspondingly corrected.
3. To make new tables each year. "Last year's report" (if known to be such) is always omitted. No allowance is made for the membership of any non-reporting church or Sunday school, except such as is made by the State secretaries, who are the proper judges of its propriety. The list of churches of this year is compared, name by name, with that of last year, and all variations are specifically mentioned with the State summary, so that each church can be traced from year to year.
4. To examine carefully all the tables, with a view to correction or addition by correspondence, especially to correct "pastoral supply" to the latest moment. Proof-sheets have been sent to secretaries and some Home Mission superintendents who could be reached in season. But no such changes have been allowed to affect the summaries.
5. To complete the statistics by (1) giving in some form every statistical fact obtainable, — items given by some States, but not by all, being aggregated with the respective State summaries; and (2) putting into finished State and general summaries, with "totals" in all cases, everything capable of it; so that no person in search of any statistical fact shall be obliged to perform any arithmetical calculation to find it.

MINOR EXPLANATIONS of the statistical tables will be found on page 221.

* The missions are arranged geographically (in alphabetical order). The names of missionaries in each mission are also placed alphabetically. The figures next after the names denote respectively the year of ordination and the year of commencing service. It is expected that the Dakota mission will be transferred, 1883, Jan. 1, to the American Missionary Association.

* This list is made from the reports of the several State organizations, and is supposed to include only members of some organization of ministers or churches. A few not members (but inserted on authority from the States) are starred. Not a few names are of persons removing from one place of labor to another not reported. The figures against names denote the year of ordination, which some States do not furnish. The (contracted) name of a State (in brackets) against any person's name denotes that he is reported by such State and not by the one where he resides. Some of these are doubtless assuming charge in the places mentioned.

NOTE. — 1. The Foreign Missionaries are not included in the "total ministers."
 2. Most of the churches "not supplied" have regular public worship, but no one minister engaged for continuous service. Many are in the interval between pastorates.
 3. Most of the "acting pastors" are practically the same as "pastors," the difference being in the omission of formal installation.
 4. The number of ministers "not in pastoral work" includes (with a few authorized exceptions) only those who are members of some Association or Conference. The number this year is taken from the result after revising the tables as to pastoral supply. When persons not thus members cease to be in pastoral service, they necessarily cease to be reported.
 5. Blanks signify "no report."

NOTES.—1. The "total" church members above, in several States, and therefore in the general total, exceeds the sum of "males" and "females," because some churches report the total without mentioning the particulars whose sum makes it; but the relative proportion is not affected.

2. "Absent" denotes persons who live at a place other than that of their church relation, and do not worship with their church.

3. The removals by "discipline" sometimes include the number of persons whose names are dropped from the church lists on account of long absence.

4. The churches making no reports are included in the Summaries; a past report of membership is included if so done by the State reports, but no estimate is made of "additions," etc.

5. Blanks in the above table denote "no report."

6. Idaho and Montana are inserted for the first time.

* Last year's reports.

☞ Last year's summary should be changed to include the Welsh churches in Pennsylvania, and will give as follows:—
 Pennsylvania, total church members, 6,024 (instead of 2,036); in Sabbath Schools, 5,902 (instead of 2,665). TOTAL CHURCH MEMBERS, 385,685 (instead of 381,687); in Sabbath Schools, 450,650 (instead of 447,413).

NOTES. — 1. The distinction is made between contributions for benevolent purposes and moneys raised for any home expenses. For instance, money given to the general Sabbath School cause is benevolent; money expended by a church in supporting its own Sabbath School is a home expenditure, as much as a pastor's salary.

2. The amount of Home Expenditure does not mean all that is spent in a given place, but solely what is raised by a church itself, exclusive of all outside aid.

3. The amounts reported above for the specific objects of benevolence are such as are reported (and added up) by the State organizations, and are below the facts. They are inserted as indicating proportions, but are not worth adding up. It should be noted that in some States the sums were amounts contributed to a particular society; in others, for causes represented by that society, — a distinction which we cannot preserve this year. Some States so group objects that some items cannot be distinguished.

4. It will be seen that the reports are very imperfect. Many churches make no report.

* Of this sum, $21,025.38 for "local missions."

NOTE. — But few States reported the items for this important table. The ordinations, etc., for those not reporting, are therefore compiled from preceding lists.

Lists of new and dropped churches are given with the Summary of each State.

The gains marked "a" above are only gain in reports, being gain over "no report", last year. The losses marked "b" are, similarly, loss by such as reported last year, but make no report this year.

Blanks signify no report, and our necessary ignorance.

Q In last year's corresponding table, page 217, put the figures here given in place of those there given :—

As to "Contributions" and "Home Expenditures," in this table, it will be seen that it is more an exhibit of the number of churches reporting than of totals raised. Before the issue of 1867, one half of the churches did not report either item; many States did not have the item in their schedules.

In this table, the "new" churches are occasionally such as were previously "dropped."
 Under "Died" (Ministers), until 1873 no count was kept to distinguish between "acting pastors" and "without charge." The difference between "pastors" and "totals" includes these two classes. The fluctuations under "Benevolent Contributions" are greatly due to more or less full reports. See the annual number of churches reporting, in table next above.

A few slight inaccuracies in the summaries given with some States in the tables are corrected in the summary tables, which are in all cases the standard.

The comparisons just given with the preceding year are made after the figures of that year are revised by the addition of those Welsh churches in Pennsylvania, which, failing to make any report for a series of years, were then dropped. They are now restored, and, to prevent a great and not real appearance of a decided loss one year and undue gain this year, the last year's figures are revised, and the revision carried all through our summary tables.

It will be seen that the number of churches with pastors is increased by 50. The total number of ministers shows a decrease of 13. This variation is only from more or less fulness in reporting. It would be easy to add fifty or more to this number.

The number of ministers not in charge of churches appears to be 1,198; or 65 decrease. The total is large, out of 3,723 ministers. But the surplus rapidly decreases when we analyze the lists. The reports of employment are not complete; but such as they are, supplemented by the secretary's personal familiarity with the names, they give as follows, — the numbers being under, rather than over, the real facts: —

This number (444) seems to be a necessary number.

Beyond this we find a number actually retired because in some secular employment, viz.: 8 in employ of State or general government; 3 lawyers; 4 physicians; 5 in literary work; 28 in business.

MINOR EXPLANATIONS.

1. Any church given in brackets is one organized since the date of State report; not included in the summary, but inserted for information. A few churches temporarily not associated are inserted by their own wish.

2. Installed pastors are marked "p," or "i"; others in service are not marked. Blanks in the column of pastoral supply, meaning no regularly engaged minister, are left blank for the convenience of those who note pastoral changes.

3. Post-office addresses of ministers in pastoral service are not found in the tables of churches, but in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers.

4. The two columns following the names of ministers in the tables of churches denote (1) the year of ordination, (2) the year when the minister was installed, or commenced service with that church.

5. A star (*) prefixed to the name of a minister in pastoral service, not installed, implies that he is not a member of any organization of churches or ministers in that State; but not many States so designate in the tables. A star similarly prefixed in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers denotes that he is found in the original State alphabetical list, but is reported not to be a member of any such organization in the United States; or that he is found supplying some church, but is not in the State alphabetical list.

6. Licentiates are not reckoned as ministers. Churches supplied by such, or by ministers of other denominations, are reckoned as vacant; but the number of such churches is given in each State summary. No ministers of other denominations (if so known) are inserted in the General Alphabetical List. Some ministers belong to the two denominations at once.

7. The names of some Congregational ministers are, doubtless, missing; but it is solely because they are not reported by any organization of churches or ministers.

8. Under "Church Members," "Absent" are included in "Males," "Females," and "Total." "Additions," "Removals," and "Baptisms" cover the twelve months next preceding the date of report given with the name of each State.

9. Blanks in any column of figures are such as were so left in the State Minutes. They ought always to signify "no report," but some States do not follow the proper rule of inserting a cipher where "none" is meant, and the examiner must conjecture, in any given case, whether "none" or "no report" is intended. In our General Summaries, a blank invariably signifies "no report."

10. A vigorous effort has been made this year to give, with the name of a church, its post-office address if it be different from the name of place given. The effort is greatly, but not entirely successful. It will be tried again next year.

LIST OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES

REPORTED BY THE SEVERAL STATE ORGANIZATIONS.

THE following is a compilation of the alphabetical lists furnished by the State Associations and Conferences, corrected by correspondence with their secretaries to the latest possible date. The secretary of the Council in no case presumes to insert or omit a name upon his own responsibility. The State organizations (or later Councils) are alone responsible; but the secretary has used his utmost endeavors to obtain a complete and correct list. If any names are omitted, it is because they are not reported by any organization in any State.

The figures refer to pages where the name will be found in the tables, in the annual record (of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and marriages), and in the list of foreign missionaries. Those without figures are presumed to be not in pastoral service, and will be found in the alphabetical list commencing on page 195. In some cases the page is left as in tables, when the post-office is changed since the tables were put to press.

Names starred (*) are of persons who, although mentioned (usually as supplying churches), are reported to be members of no organization of Congregational churches or ministers.

Some post-office addresses are antiquated; but it is the best that could be done.

Licentiates are not included in this list, nor are ministers of other denominations.

A list of licentiates is on page 270.

Names of persons in last year's list, deceased since the issue of 1882, are retained, with date of death, and with place of residence as given in 1882, and are indexed to the pages of the "Vital Statistics."

Some errors will be found in first names, initials, and spelling. No pains have been spared to secure accuracy; but, efforts failing, the compiler has not ventured to follow even his own convictions, against the unmistakable testimony of the reports.

Names differing only in use of final "e," as Clark, Clarke, are treated as one name, but spelled according to report.

Letters for our missionaries will be addressed to the care of society mentioned with the name, such societies (initials) being (as are all foreign addresses) in italics

LIST OF LICENTIATES REPORTED.

THIS list contains the names of those apparently reported as under care, with references to the pages where any such are mentioned as supplying churches. It includes also some names starred (*), which denotes that these persons, while reported as supplying churches, are not reported to be approbated by, or under the care of, any Congregational organization.

Further, 1. This list does not agree with the number given in State Minutes, because all ordained since the lists were reported are here dropped. 2. The post-office addresses are often delusive, the place being that of temporary service only. 3. Names followed by State only are of persons approved in the State mentioned, no residence being reported. 4. The list is incomplete, because some States make no full report of Licentiates. 5. The contracted name of a State, in brackets, means that the name was reported by that State, although the person resides elsewhere.

THE STANDARD HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

SPIRITUAL SONGS.

BY THE REV. CHARLES S. ROBINSON, D. D.,

Author of "Songs for the Sanctuary," etc.

It has been estimated by many that Dr. Robinson's books are used in more Congregational and Presbyterian churches than all other hymn and tune books combined. For many years his "Songs for the Sanctuary" was the standard among the churches of America; and when, after fifteen years, SPIRITUAL SONGS was issued, embodying the best in "Songs for the Sanctuary," with later hymns and tunes,—as perfect a book as Dr. Robinson's rich experience would enable him to make,—it was not strange that the critics everywhere should call it the best hymn and tune book that had yet appeared, the Congregationalist predicting for it "great favor with the church." Four years have passed, and scores of thousands of copies are in use. The following are some of the best known Congregational pastors into whose churches SPIRITUAL SONGS, in either the church or the prayer-meeting editions, has been adopted:—

We are glad to furnish returnable sample copies to pastors for examination without charge.

Two other works with SPIRITUAL SONGS, FOR CHURCH AND CHOIR, form THE SPIRITUAL SONGS SERIES. These are,—

SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR SOCIAL WORSHIP. An abridgment of the large book, designed for smaller churches and for prayer-meetings, costing to churches, in quantities, 50 cts. Rev. Robert West, formerly of the Shawmut Church, Boston, and now editor of the Advance, says: "It is the best book for social meetings that I know of."

SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. A book of hymns and music of a higher class than that commonly used in Sunday schools. Its issue was said to "mark the opening of an era in Sunday-school song." The Congregationalist calls it "the best book of the sort within our knowledge." The binding of rich, red cloth is unique and durable.

So many churches are now adopting a form of responsive reading, that we beg to call particular attention to the following. They can be had bound alone or with SPIRITUAL SONGS:—

SELECTIONS FOR RESPONSIVE READINGS. Compiled by Rev. Dr. Robinson. The Interior says, "The arrangement is admirable, and a wide range of topics is given. The volume will commend itself on inspection."

THE PSALTER. Arranged according to the original parallelism for responsive reading.

The Theistic Argument as affected by Recent Theories.

By J. L. DIMAN, late Professor of History at Brown University. Edited by Prof. GEORGE P. FISHER, of Yale College. 1 vol. 8vo. $2.00.

"The spirit of philosophic calmness and absolute toleration have reached a point in these lectures beyond which it is difficult to imagine any further development. And yet the whole tenor of its able and elaborate treatise indicates that its author has realized the high importance and solemn grandeur of the subject before him. He bears witness to the incontestable fact that the sense of the supernatural has been in all ages the most potent factor in the development of character; that it has supplied the great ideals of human action; that it has furnished the controlling and sustaining motives in the diversified movement of human life." — New York Tribune.

Orations and Essays, with Selected Parish Sermons.

By J. LEWIS DIMAN. A Memorial Volume. With a Portrait. 8vo, gilt top. $2.50.

D.; The Alienation of the Educated Class from Politics; The Method of Academic Culture; Address on Roger Williams; The Settlement of Mount Hope; Sir Henry Vane; Religion in America, 1776-1876; University Corporations; and seven Sermons.

"I think it is not the partiality of personal friendship which leads me to regard these productions of Prof. Diman as not surpassed by any other writings of the same class in our literature."
— Prof. George P. Fisher, of Yale.

THE REPUBLIC OF GOD.

By ELISHA MULFORD, LL. D., author of "The Nation." 8vo. $2.00.

"He has written one of the great religious books of the age. He has organized and developed the tendencies of thoughts which the thinking men of the century have contributed to the expression of religious truth. His book goes beneath the controversies of several generations, and, for the first time in theological writing, gives full expression to the growing consciousness of men as to the facts of divine truth." — Boston Advertiser.

HISTORY OF BILLERICA

WITH A GENEALOGICAL REGISTER.

THIS work, to the preparation of which the subscriber has devoted four years, was published in December by A. WILLIAMS & Co., Boston.

The early history has prominence, details being drawn from the well-preserved records of the town, with important additions gathered from the Massachusetts Archives, the Middlesex Registry of Deeds, Probate Records, and other sources.

A Map of Ancient Billerica shows the town as it was prior to the separation of Tewksbury, large parts of Bedford and Carlisle, and portions of Wilmington and Lowell. This map gives the location of the large early farms or grants, and of more than eighty families, or nearly all who were in the town before 1700, including the garrisons of 1676.

The Genealogical Register embodies all births, marriages, and deaths found in the town records prior to 1800 (in fact to 1840), with additions and connecting links, gleaned from gravestones, probate records, and many other sources; and early lines are brought down to date. All families bearing the names Farley, Farmer, Jefts, Kidder, Kittredge, Pollard, Shed, and Toothaker, whose lines in this country go back to 1700, will find their American progenitor in Billerica. Extensive branches were also here of the families of Crosby, Danforth, French, Frost, Hill, Manning, Parker, Patten, Richardson, Rogers, Stearns, and Whiting. Others, less numerous, but important and significant, are traced of more than sixty families. Lists of the soldiers in the early Indian wars, as well as the Revolution and the Rebellion, will be found, and nearly all the early families will find their representatives among them. Illustrations are given of the churches, schools, factories, a few old and some modern houses, and a very few portraits.

The Religious History is carefully traced, and some very interesting early records are recovered, illustrating the organization of the church, and fixing its date. The long pastorates of S. Whiting, S. Ruggles, and Dr. H. Cummings receive due attention.

To the sons and daughters of Billerica, who are scattered through the land, and to the large and increasing number who are interested in our local history and genealogy, this volume is confidently commended as worthy of their attention and patronage. It is a handsome octavo of 520 pages, and is offered, for a short time, in cloth binding or in sheets, at the low price of $3.00 and cost of delivery (by mail 25 cents).

As the edition is limited, all who wish to secure it at this price will do well to subscribe early. Orders may be addressed to

The second floor of the building is devoted to these uses, and the other parts are leased for business purposes to cover the expenses of what is distinctively the "MEMORIAL HALL." This contains an office, reception room, parlor, and fire-proof vault, also the "ELDRIDGE MEMORIAL HALL," devoted to memorials of the Christian workers in the churches of the State.

The Religious Herald,

FOR 1883.

With this year we commenced the Forty-first volume. We expect, as in the past, that ministers and laymen will enrich its columns with their best thoughts. It is well known that the great aim of the publisher and editors is to lead readers to a higher life, to appreciate good morals, good government, and righteous living. The paper will be a safe and valuable aid in the family to an intelligent, practical knowledge of the world and how to live in it. And it will show as heretofore that the religious life is the only true life for all to lead. We are glad that it has been loved and cherished by those who have been accustomed to read it. It is designed to be a special help to the members of Congregational churches.

"The Gem of BIBLES"

— IS —
The "OXFORD."

Sunday-School Superintendents, Teachers, and all other Students of the Bible would do well, before making their selections, to read this:—

The SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES says:

"The demand for good editions of the Bible
"with fitting helps to its study is on the in"crease among Sunday-school teachers; and
"the effort to meet this demand promotes a
"healthful competition among publishing
"houses. It has not been easy at all times to "decide in favor of any one edition above all
"others; hence such a request as the follow-
"ing— from a correspondent in Tennessee—
"could not have been answered by us with "positiveness until a few months ago. He "says:—

THE QUESTION.

"I desire you to tell me which is the best
"Teachers' Bible among the kinds adver-
"tised. I want the best Bible for "Teachers."

The Best.

THE "OXFORD"
School Teachers'
BIBLE.

THE ANSWER.

"We have no hesitation in saying that,
"all things considered, the OXFORD TEACH-
"ERS' BIBLES are better for the Sunday-school
"teacher than any other with which we are familiar."

✎ The Sunday School Times, of Sept. 25, 1880, in reviewing and comparing the various editions of TEACHERS' BIBLES now offered, further says:—

"All things considered, we prefer the OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES to the London, and it is between these two that the choice is commonly to be made. The range of editions and prices of the OXFORD is as large as any. The paper and printing are better than the London. The binding leaves nothing to be desired. The main helps of concordance and index, taken together, are an improvement on the London. The various other helps which are likely to be of most practical service to the average teacher are more compact, and better arranged for their purpose, than the corresponding material in the London."

ADDRESS,

CHICAGO, ILL.

Congregationalist.

THE OLDEST RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER.

NO OTHER religious journal in the world employs a larger editorial force than the Congregationalist. Besides the members of our staff in the home office at Boston, we are represented in New York by the Rev. A. H. CLAPP, D. D., and in Chicago by the Rev. SIMEON GILBERT, D. D., the latter giving his entire time to the work. Our contributors include many of the best writers in the country. While aiming to represent specially the denomination which its name indicates, the Congregationalist is broad and catholic in spirit, as well as truly national in its scope, and will be found welcome in all evangelical families, with little reference to denominational lines. We cover a great variety of topics, and our facilities for making an attractive and valuable paper for 1883 are greatly increased as compared with the past. It should be remembered that the following announcement, with its names, covers but a small part of our plans for the year, new features and new writers being introduced from time to time.

We are specially authorized to announce the Rev. EDWARD A. PARK, D. D., and the Rev. RICHARD SALTER STORRS, D. D., as contributors to our columns upon topics of fresh interest.

Theological and Devotional Articles.

The following are among the many names of those who furnish theological and devotional articles:—

Rev. Austin Phelps, D. D.
Rev. Wm. M. Taylor, D. D.

SONGS OF PRAISE:

A NEW HYMN AND TUNE BOOK,

— FOR —

CHOIR AND CONGREGATION,

Published with and without Scripture Selections, for Responsive Reading.

Edited by the Rev. CHARLES H. RICHARDS, D. D.

A compilation of the choicest devotional hymns in the language, with over four hundred of the richest and best old and new tunes, among which will be found an unusually large proportion of the best tunes of English and German composers. It is already in use in leading churches throughout the country, and the reports that come to us from pastors who have introduced it are unanimous and enthusiastic in its praise. It is believed to be the cheapest book of its kind published. From the multitude of testimonials which have been received, the following are selected as representative of all:—

From the CONGREGATIONALIST, Boston.

It has been compiled with a discriminating wisdom and taste, and edited with a thoroughness which are uncommon.

From the New York OBSERVER.

It contains everything essential to a hand-book for general worship and special services. The hymns and tunes include the old favorites, while the most acceptable modern music is largely represented.

From the New York TIMES.

In its mechanical arrangement, the book leaves scarcely anything to be desired.

From Rev. J. E. RANKIN, D. D., Washington, D. C.

The book is a grand one,—certainly the best of its kind I have ever examined.

From Rev. EDWARD HAWES, D. D., Pastor of North Congregational Church, New Haven, Conn.

The choir and congregation are equally pleased with the tunes and hymns.

From Rev. A. HASTINGS ROSS, First Congregational Church, Port Huron, Mich.

It meets our highest expectation; it has hymns enough; it is clear in typography, beautiful in appearance, and its hymns and tunes grow upon us with use.

From Rev. J. A. BIDDLE, Pastor Congregational Church, Oswego, N. Y.

Both choir and congregation are delighted with it. It is, in my judgment, the finest collection of hymns and tunes yet published. I cannot commend it too highly.

From Rev. F. A. NOBLE, D. D., Chicago, Ill.

The selections for responsive reading seem to me to be as near perfect as possible.

From Rev. FRANK P. WOODBURY, D. D., Pastor Second Congregational Church, Rockford, Ill.

Our high expectations of the popular acceptance of "Songs of Christian Praise and Scripture Selections," when, after thorough examination and extensive comparison, we ordered 450 copies of the book six months ago, have been more than fulfilled.

From Rev. W. H. THOMAS, Pastor of First Congregational Church, Leavenworth, Kan.

Your hymn book has more than met our expectations. It is a work of merit, and improves with use. I cannot speak too highly of it. It is just what we wanted, and has given perfect satisfaction.

From Rev. J. G. VOSE, D. D., Providence, R. I.

Our people are unanimous in its favor, and enjoy it more and more.

From Rev. T. M. MONROE, Akron, O.

The music is peculiarly rich, singable, and uniformly well adapted. The selections are admirable. The book grows upon us, and we heartily commend it.

From Rev. EDWARD BRYAN, Pastor of Presbyterian Church, Atlantic City, N. J.

The book gives universal satisfaction. For practical use in congregational singing I do not think it has an equal.

Returnable copies for examination will be sent free to pastors and music committees on application to the publishers.

A 24-page pamphlet containing specimen pages, testimonials, introduction prices, etc., mailed free to any address.

The Book contains 606 Hymns and Chants, about 350 Tunes, and 432 pages.

It is a "Manual" for all occasions, designed to meet alike the needs of the churches for Sabbath worship, missionary concerts, the prayer-meeting, the Sabbath school, and the home.

The book has already been introduced into a great many Churches, and receives the highest
